The Irish Nationalists Adjourn Until To-morrow Without a Vote on the Parnell Matter.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The vote in the Irish nationalist conference last night on Mr. Nolan's dilatory motion providing for a postponement of the discussion of the question of Mr. Parnell's retirement and its eventual consideration in Dublin, does not seem to have exercised a decisive influence on public opinion as to the final outcome of the Irish imbroglio. Those friends of the struggling leader, however, who were found scattered about the parliament buildings this morning, were quite confident that the twenty-nine votes tallied for Mr. Nolan's amendment indicated that instead of its severance being the mooted point, the real question was simply how soon would the body of the nationalist dog vibrate responsive to the initiative impulse of the Parnellite tail.

Those of the Irish following who do not believe that on the facts of any one man depends the fate of their country, who care little for the personality or ambitions of Mr. Parnell or any other leader, but who do care vastly for the welfare of the cause of Ireland, view with dismay a breach which seems to widen with each passing hour. The comments made by such men to day plainly indicates that to them the vituperative language, angry temper and turbulent scenes which characterized yesterday's sessions of the conference are things pregnant with lasting injury to the cause of Irish legislative autonmey.

The enemies of Mr. Parnell this morning assert that the great clouds of crimination and recremination which have gathered about the conference must speedily be dispelled, and the moral force of the people of both countries brought to bear on the pith of the matter. When this is done they profess to believe that the Irish leader will be unpursued.

At 2 o'clock the day's session of the conference of the Irish nationalist members of the house of commons was begun. Prior to the opening of the proceedings the usual precautions were observed to insure the meeting against intrusion or interruption from the outside.

LATER.

The Irish nationalist conference has adjourned until to morrow. It is given out that a compromise is probable.

DUBLIN, Dec. 3.—The Freemans Journal referring to to-day's session of Irish nationalist members of the house of commons to consider the question of the future leadership of the party, says a suggestion or resolution, or an amendment in some form, will be submitted looking to the preservation of party unity and the establishment on a satisfactory basis of home rule cause. The London correspondent of the same paper says that Mr. Clancey will, with the approval of Mr. Parnell and his friends, offer a compromise measure for a settlement of existing differences.

CORK, Dec. 3.—Resolutions supporting Mr. Parnell have been adopted by a committee of the Young Ireland society, of which Mr. William O'Brien is president. This action was taken in the face of contrary advice given by Mr. O'Brien, who is one of those representatives now in the United States who signed the cable dispatch advocating the retirement of Parnell from the leadership. The Vintiners' association of Cork has also adopted a resolution favoring the retention of Mr. Parnell as the chief of the Irish party.

FARMERS ALLIANCE.

The Convention Holding a Meeting With Closed Doors.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 3.—At last evening's session of the National Farmers Alliance the report of the committee on credentials was received. A resolution was adopted enforcing all the members to the strictest secrecy regarding the business transacted. A press committee was appointed which alone is authorized to give out information. Other committees appointed were: On President Polk's message, on order of business, on mileage and per diem, and on fraternal relations. The last named committee is a very important one, as its duty is to receive representatives from other national organizations, mitigate character with a view of securing concerted action on legislation, etc., and aiming at the ultimate consolidation of them all. As Mr. Powderly is expected here early this morning this committee will doubtless have an early conference with him. The night session adjourned at 10.45 p. m.

SPORTING CIRCLES.

Jake Kilrain Will Have a Glove Contest for a Purse of $5,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The California Athletic club at a meeting last night decided to offer a purse of $5,000 for a glove contest between Jake Kilrain and George Godfrey. Godfrey is willing to spar for that amount, and Phil Dwyer wired him that he would furnish a stake of $5,000 if the match was arranged. Kilrain said that the terms were satisfactory to him.

The Puritan Athletic club decided last night to offer a $4,000 purse for a contest between Cal McCarthy and Geo. Dixon. McCarthy has accepted the club's offer and his backers will meet those of Dixon to-day to sign articles. Altogether the match will be for $12,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The trial of Millie Panhorst, the young woman who shot and killed Samuel Goldberg several months ago, was concluded yesterday, the jury returning a verdict of acquittal. Goldberg was a lover of Miss Panhorst's and the evidence given during the trial showed that he had betrayed her. At the time of the shooting Goldberg had threatened to kill her unless she would marry him by contract, and was shot by the woman, while he was apparently trying to draw a weapon from his pocket.

MURDERED NEAR LIMA.

LIMA, Ohio, Dec. 3—Yesterday morning early the dead body of John Watkins was discovered lying near the track of the Nickel Plate railroad at Hartsburg, with a bullet hole in his head. He was last seen at midnight with two men, who were strangers in the locality. All three had been drinking.

The Struggle in Alabama Will be a Long and Bitter One.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 2.—The striking coal miners were joined yesterday by nearly all the men who were at work Monday. The indications are that the struggle will be a long and bitter one. Nearly half the furnaces in the district will go out of blast this week and others will follow as soon as their stock of coke is exhausted. The mine operators remain firm in their resistance of the demands of the men.

NOTHING NEW

Has Turned Up Yet in the Indian Trouble.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Dec. 3.—The Rosebud Indians are reported to have settled yesterday in camp at Grass Basin, the Bad Lands. Reports that they will come are discredited by the authorities here. If they do not come in it will simply be a question of allowing them to keep on stealing cattle all winter or sending the soldiers to round them up.

BOLD ROBBERIES.

At the Muzzle of a Revolver a Cashier is Made to Give Up $3,200.--Other Bandit Deeds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—John N. Asier, cashier of the Allerton packing company, was held up yesterday afternoon in his office in the packing house by two unknow men of granger-like appearance and robbed of $3,200 in cash. It was pay day at Allerton's and few moments after $3,000 had been brought from the bank to the cashier, the strangers entered the office. In an instant the cashier was looking down the muzzle of a revolver. He was commanded to empty the money into a canvass bag which was held out alongside the revolver. Eighteen hundred men were working in the packing house close by at the time of the robbery. After the robbers had secured the money they backed out of the office and thrust a jimmy through the latch of the only door to the office, effectually barring the egress of the cashier. A buggy in waiting at the curb dashed off with the thieves, and all trace of them was lost before the police could be reached.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 3.—Early yesterday morning five unknown robbers entered the house of Mrs. Carey, a wealthy widow, residing at Sewell, took the woman from bed, bound and gagged her and secured about $1,000 in money which was in the house. Two of the robbers were subsequently captured, but soon after escaped, and in the exchange of shots which followed, a man named Mason was shot dead.

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 3.—Nathan Crockett, a negro, was killed yesterday in the camps of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern railroad in this city by an overseer named Glass. Impudence on the negro's part was the cause. Glass escaped.

INGENIOUS SWINDLER.

ST PAUL, Dec. 3.—County Auditor Cine has unearthed a remarkable fraud in the county clerk's office in the issue of bogus jury certificates, the guilty party being J. P. Davis, a deputy clerk, who has been pocketing money by this ingenious style of theft for the last four or five years, his total stealings amounting to several thousand dollars. When Clerk O'Connor discovered the robbery he was so enraged that he attacked Davis with his fists and so disabled him that he is in Liberty hospital, though under arrest.

WORTH MILLIONS.

A Long Needed Rain Comes to the California Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The signal service has reports from the northern coast that a cyclone from the Japanese gulf stream has struck the Washington coast and developed in the worst gale known for years. The barometer dropped over half an inch in twelve hours and the wind is blowing sixty miles per hour. There is a strong possibility of the storm moving southwest to California. The long drought in this state was broken last night by rains reported from all parts of the Sacramento valley. This rain is worth millions to the state.

ST. PIERRE MIQUILON, Dec. 3.—There has been three days of terrible storm, tempest and hurricane. On Saturday four vessels parted their chains and came ashore and will prove total wrecks. The crews were saved. On Saturday the storms abated. There was no damage to shipping. On Monday night, however, a hurricane set in, and inflicted great damage. About ten schooners are high and dry around the harbor, with the winter fleet, moored for winter here, badly damaged. The steamer St. Pierre was to have sailed yesterday, but will remain in port until the weather becomes settled.

Asking for Mercy.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—A meeting was held last evening at Cooper union to protest against the execution of Sophie Gunsburg, the young Russian girl who is condemned to death in Russia on suspicion of being a nihilist. FALLING WALLS

At a Fire Bury Two Men in the Debris and One is Killed.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 3.—At 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the fine cut department of the immense tobacco manufacturing establishment of Daniel Scotton & Co. A heave fall of snow prevented prompt attendance of the fire department and when sufficient force was on the ground the fire had attained great headway. The fine-cut department was a building 200 by 500 feet and in three quarters of an hour it was wholly in flames. The firemen were fighting the fire hard under the Fortestall when the cornice toppled and the wall fell. Before all the firemen could get away Pipeman Robinson, of engine company No. 8, and Lieut. Patrick Conghlin, of the same company were buried in the debris. Robinson was dug out dead. Conglin was taken out alive with his head crushed, and he died at the hospital in an hour. He had been on the department roll of honor for repeated acts of bravery. Pipemen Peter Cullen and Lniet Demay were also caught by the wall and badly hurt, but they will not die. The fire was still smouldering at 10 o'clock this morning. The big building had been destroyed with a loss of $100,000, while $20,000 more in stock and machinery were lost. The losses are pretty fully covered by insurance. The fire throws 400 hands out of employment, for the time, but the place will be immediately rebuilt.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Dec. 3.—A large boiler exploded yesterday at Berwick with terrible results. Frank Grover, Isaac Grover and two others, whose names could not be learned, were instantly killed. What caused the explosion is a mystery. The loss of property will reach several thousand dollars.

Coykendall, who was convicted of conspiring with his son-in law, John H. Van Loan, to defraud the Second National bank of Jersey City. Van Loan fled to Canada and is still there. Coykendall received a nine months sentence in the pen. He has served six months of the term. Van Loan and Coykendall are connected with some of the wealthiest families in Jersey City.

ATTACKED AN EDITOR.

An Enraged Father Canes a Newspaper Man.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 3.—Editor Sidney Corbett, of the Critic, a society journal, was the victim of a caning yesterday. Mr. Corbett recently married a daughter of Millionaire Mabley's, but has a profound contempt for society. He is reported to have written in a slight manner of Miss Lillian Thompson, daughter of ex-Mayor Thompson, after Miss Thompson's return from Europe, when it was reported in New York and Detroit papers that she was to marry Count Olienist, of Berlin. This the family denied very emphatically. Yesterday Mr. Thompson called on Mr. Corbett and a row ensued, in which the mayor struck Corbett across the face with a cane, following it up with repeated blows, until bystanders interferred and separated the combatants.

RESTRICTING FREE PASSES

On the Railroads--The Clergymen's Privilege Will Be Curtailed.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Every railroad in the west was represented at a meeting in the city yesterday, called to consider the free transportation question. It was decided to restrict the issue of all passes during the coming year to the closest limit. Clergymen's half fare permits will only be good in the state in which the holder resides. Heretofore passes have been issued liberally in order to influence both freight and passenger traffic, but all agreed to abandon such methods.

KNIGHTS OF THE RAZOR.

The Annual Convention of the International Union of the Journeymen Barbers in This City.

The third annual convention of the International union of the Journeymen Barbers, practically opened in this city to day. The meetings are being held at the rooms of the "Wayne Socials," at 195 Calhoun street. The meeting was convened yesterday, but owing to a delay in the arrival of some of the delegates there was an adjournment without having accomplished any business. This morning at 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order and William Hain, of Toledo, president of the organization, was chosen to preside, and A. Meyers, of Grand Rapids, as secretary. There will be three sessions a day, with closed doors, consequently the proceedings cannot be obtained for publicity. The important business of the convention will be held to-morrow and a final adjournment will be made to morrow evening.

President Hain was seen by a SENTINEL reporter at the Aldine. "Our attendance is such as to ensure a good meeting," said he, "and we expect to accomplish a good deal. Our organization is still young, but the membership of our subordinate unions will aggregate nearly 8,000. The object of the organization is plainly that of mutual protection. Many of the unions are not represented, but it does not require a great number of them to fulfill the purpose of our meeting."

President Hains further stated that the organization was a member of the Federation of Labor, and one of its objects was to procure shorter hours. It does not favor the percentage system, as it gives inequality in employment. The election of officers and the selection of a place for the next annual meeting will be decided to-morrow. The latter choice seems to be strongly centered to Denver, Col., and the next convention will probably go there. The Aldine hotel is headquarters for the delegates, and the register shows the following gentlemen present to attend the sessions: William Hains, Toledo, president; H. Mote, Muncie; A. M. Garsile, Toledo; L. H. Jones, Findlay, O.; C. Ramedden, Denver, Col.: Chas. E. Koontz, Memphis, Tenn.; H. Meyers, St. Paul, Minn.; L. P. Hollister, Lansing, Mich.; H. J. Mote, Muncie; Louis Schneider, Columbus, O.; Floyd Bostwick, Jackson, Mich.; Chas. F. Knecht, Topeka, Kas.

BLISS IN OLD AGE.

John B. Roy and Justin Ternet Join Hands and Hearts.

A quaint old couple appeared before County Clerk D. W. Souder this afternoon with the startling declaration that they had come to Fort Wayne from Jefferson township for the purpose of procuring a marriage license. The parties were John B. Roy, a prominent farmer of the above mentioned township, and Mrs. Justin Ternet, and old resident in the same neighborhood. He was a widower and she a widow. Both of them are well known, and in good financial circumstances.

They decided in a sensible way to go into a partnership and put sunshine into each others lives with their declining years. Mr. Roy is a Canadian Frenchman, while his bride to be is a French woman. He is nearly seventy and she past sixty years old. The marriage will take place in the little Catholic church at Besancon, after which the neighborhood will celebrate the occasion with grand festivities. THE SENTINEL extends congratulations.

A SURPRISED SWISS.

A Young Wagonmaker Receives Money From His Native Country.

Recently Albert Krieg, a young man, arrived in Fort Wayne from his native place, Aarberg, Switzerland. He found work at his trade, that of wagonmaking, in the works of the Fleming Manufacturing company, at which place he has been steadily employed since. Young Mr. Krieg was surprised yesterday to receive information that he had fallen heir to the sum of $500 from the estate of a relative. A very light hearted lad was he when he called at the postoffice to-day and received the amount. He is an industrious young man, just such a one as can appreciate the value of the bequest, which is to him a whole fortune. Mr. Krieg boards at 43½ East Columbia street.

REPRESENTS $100,000.

The Talbot Paving Company's Contracts So Far Completed.

Contractor Talbot, of the Talbot Paving company, Detroit, said to-day that the paving of East DeWald street, from Hanna to Calhoun streets, would be finished by noon to-morrow.

"This," said he, "will close up our work in Fort Wayne this year. The only remaining unfinished portion of our contracts is that part of DeWald street from Calhoun street to Fairfield avenue. We will store our rocks and finish these four squares in the spring."

"Have you figured up what the estimate of these pavements represent in money?" asked a reporter.

"Our contracts will figure up $100,000, not $1,000 difference either way, this amount including the completion of DeWald street."

The contracts let outside of the Talbot company will amount to considerable. The cost of street pavements in Fort Wayne this year foots up big figures.

GIVEN TO THE POOR.

Manager Geary Makes a Generous Gift to the Relief Union.

Mrs. Ellen R. Bursley, the secretary of the Fort Wayne Relief Union, has written Manager James Geary a letter accepting his offer of $1,000 worth of admission tickets to the World's Museum, which he will present to the society. The exact date of the entertainment has not yet been decided upon, but it will be some night during the week commencing December 15, and the entire receipts for that evening from the sale of these tickets will go to the Relief union. The tickets will be sold at 10 cents each, and Geary's donation will thus admit 10,000 people to the museum. Manager Geary will provide a good entertainment on that evening, and will pay all the expenses except the printing of tickets, bills, etc., which the various newspaper offices—the News, Journal, Gazette, Archer Bros., and THE SENTINEL—will do gratuitously for the ladies. This generous act on Manager Geary's part is one to be commended, and as the entertainment that evening is for the benefit of the poor, he should have a crowded house.

DOWN AN EMBANKMENT!

A Frightful Runaway Accident in Which Farmer Hoevel is Badly Injured.

Information was brought to the city to-day of a frightful runaway, which came near being the cause of a violent death to Henry Hoevel, a prominent farmer of Adams township. Mr. Hoevel was driving home on the Trier road when the horses, frightened at some unusual object at the roadside, ran away. For fully five minutes the farmer tried in vain to get control of the animals. They galloped onward ungoverned, to the great peril of Mr. Hoevel, who was prepared to leap. Before he could do so, however, the horses shied to one side, going down an embankment and rolling over and over, with the wagon and contents to the bottom. Mr. Hoevel was carried with the outfit and suffered fearful injuries to his chest and side. One arm was also fractured. The injured man was picked up by a couple of farmers and conveyed to his home, where he is at present in a dangerous condition.

Mr. Barnes returns to the Temple tomorrow night. As a play writer Mr. Gunter's name has long held an eviable place on the American stage, and doubtless in writing his now very famous novel of the same name as the play given, Mr. Gunter had a clear and main idea of theatric representation guiding him in the story's preparation. Certainly few equally dramatic novels have come forth with an American imprint. Mr. Gunter's faith in his novel was well repaid by an enormous popularity, and a like issue attended last year's stage presentation of the story. Our readers will have the play and its presentation before them for their competent judgment thereon, and both Mr. Sanger and the theater's managers feel quite assured of the verdict that will follow its seeing.

A SUCCESSFUL YOUNG MAN.

Mr. T. L. This is the only true way to build up a trade, and Mr Lintz is enabled to do this as he imports most of his fine glassware and decorated China direct from Europe and Japan. His store is packed from floor to ceiling with everything pertaining to a first class crockery store, such as Lamps and Lamp goods of every description, Decorated Tea and Dinner Ware Decorated Toilet Ware, fine Bohemian Glassware, handsome French and German decorated China Table Cutlery and Silverware, also goods from the Japanese Empire. Stewart & Hahn,

For years we have given up keeping certain lines of Holiday Goods out side of what might be constituted actual Dry Goods. This year we were placed in such a favorable position to purchase fancy goods that we have been tempted to add a strictly Holiday Department to our store. The goods consist of Popu-Novels, suitable for humanity of all ages, from the diminutive A B C book to Webster's Unabridged Dictionary of 1,534 pages. Also a beautiful line of Illustrated booklets from 5c up.

Plush and antique oak dressing cases, hat and glove boxes, manicure sets, jewel and odom cases, plated knife, fork and spoon sets for children, pepper and salts, napkin rings, etc., etc.; steam engines that run by steam from a half to one hour, guns, banks, locomotives, wagons, blocks and dolls.

We cannot name all in detail, but we are sure anyone paying a visit to this department will agree with us that everything is new, seasonable, pretty and cheap. Although giving this department a good deal of attention, we have still given the usual care to the selections of Holiday Dry Goods.

We are now showing a full line of Holiday goods in every department of our store.

In our linen department we have table cloths and napkins, embroidered felt and flannel spreads, scarfs, etc., all new and at bottom prices. Our stamped linens are unsurpassed for variety, excellence and value.

The Irish Nationalists Adjourn Until To-morrow Without a Vote on the Parnell Matter.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The vote in the Irish nationalist conference last night on Mr. Nolan's dilatory motion providing for a postponement of the discussion of the question of Mr. Parnell's retirement and its eventual consideration in Dublin, does not seem to have exercised a decisive influence on public opinion as to the final outcome of the Irish imbroglio. Those friends of the struggling leader, however, who were found scattered about the parliament buildings this morning, were quite confident that the twenty-nine votes tallied for Mr. Nolan's amendment indicated that instead of its severance being the mooted point, the real question was simply how soon would the body of the nationalist dog vibrate responsive to the initiative impulse of the Parnellite tail.

Those of the Irish following who do not believe that on the facts of any one man depends the fate of their country, who care little for the personality or ambitions of Mr. Parnell or any other leader, but who do care vastly for the welfare of the cause of Ireland, view with dismay a breach which seems to widen with each passing hour. The comments made by such men to-day plainly indicates that to them the vituperative language, angry temper and turbulent scenes which characterized yesterday's sessions of the conference are things pregnant with lasting injury to the cause of Irish legislative autonomy.

The enemies of Mr. Parnell this morning assert that the great clouds of crimination and recrimination which have gathered about the conference must speedily be dispelled, and the moral force of the people of both countries brought to bear on the pith of the matter. When this is done they profess to believe that the Irish leader will be unpursued.

At 2 o'clock the day's session of the conference of the Irish nationalist members of the house of commons was begun. Prior to the opening of the proceedings the usual precautions were observed to insure the meeting against intrusion or interruption from the outside.

LATER.

The Irish nationalist conference has adjourned until to-morrow. It is given out that a compromise is probable.

DUBLIN, Dec. 3.—The Freemans Journal referring to to-day's session of Irish nationalist members of the house of commons to consider the question of the future leadership of the party, says a suggestion or resolution, or an amendment in some form, will be submitted looking to the preservation of party unity and the establishment on a satisfactory basis of home rule cause. The London correspondent of the same paper says that Mr. Clancey will, with the approval of Mr. Parnell and his friends, offer a compromise measure for a settlement of existing differences.

CORK, Dec. 3.—Resolutions supporting Mr. Parnell have been adopted by a committee of the Young Ireland society, of which Mr. William O'Brien is president. This action was taken in the face of contrary advice given by Mr. O'Brien, who is one of those representatives now in the United States who signed the cable dispatch advocating the retirement of Parnell from the leadership. The Vintners' association of Cork has also adopted a resolution favoring the retention of Mr. Parnell as the chief of the Irish party.

FARMERS ALLIANCE.

The Convention Holding a Meeting With Closed Doors.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 3.—At last evening's session of the National Farmers Alliance the report of the committee on credentials was received. A resolution was adopted enforcing all the members to the strictest secrecy regarding the business transacted. A press committee was appointed which alone is authorized to give out information. Other committees appointed were: On President Polk's message, on order of business, on mileage and per diem, and on fraternal relations. The last named committee is a very important one, as its duty is to receive representatives from other national organizations, mitigate character with a view of securing concerted action on legislation, etc., and aiming at the ultimate consolidation of them all. As Mr. Powderly is expected here early this morning this committee will doubtless have an early conference with him. The night session adjourned at 10.45 p. m.

SPORTING CIRCLES.

Jake Kilrain Will Have a Glove Contest for a Purse of $5,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The California Athletic club at a meeting last night decided to offer a purse of $5000 for a glove contest between Jake Kilrain and George Godfrey. Godfrey is willing to spar for that amount, and Phil Dwyer wired him that he would furnish a stake of $5,000 if the match was arranged. Kilrain said that the terms were satisfactory to him.

The Puritan Athletic club decided last night to offer a $4,000 purse for a contest between Con McCarthy and Geo. Dixon. McCarthy has accepted the club's offer and his backers will meet those of Dixon to-day to sign articles. Altogether the match will be for $12,000.

SHE MUST DIE.

A London Murderess Sentenced to Death.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The trial of Mrs. Nellie Pearcey, charged with having, in October last, murdered a woman named Mrs. Hobbs, the wife of her lover, was concluded to-day. The jury rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree, and the prisoner was sentenced to death.

BERNE, Dec. 3.—The body of a young peasant girl, so horribly mutilated as to suggest the handiwork of a "Jack the Ripper," has been found in a forest in the vicinity of this city.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The trial of Millie Fauhorst, the young woman who shot and killed Samuel Goldberg several months ago, was concluded yesterday, the jury returning a verdict of acquittal. Goldberg was a lover of Miss Fauhorst's and the evidence given during the trial showed that he had betrayed her. At the time of the shooting Goldberg had threatened to kill her unless she would marry him by contract, and was shot by the woman, while he was apparently trying to draw a weapon from his pocket.

MURDERED NEAR LIMA.

LIMA, Ohio, Dec. 3—Yesterday morning early the dead body of John Watkins was discovered lying near the track of the Nickel Plate railroad at Hartsburg, with a bullet hole in his head. He was last seen at midnight with two men, who were strangers in the locality. All three had been drinking.

George Tunget, a farmer living near Ottawa, was murdered by Edward Heaton yesterday. Heaton had served a term in state's prison and was recently released. He blamed Tunget for testifying against him.

TWO INCHES THICK.

The Ice on the Hudson River in New York.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 3.—There are fifty miles of ice two inches thick in the Hudson river from Albany southward this morning. The steamboat Norwick is endeavoring to break her way through to Albany. The steamboat James W. Baldwin, of the Roundout and New York line, will go into winter quarters at the end of the week. The mercury this morning is only six degrees above zero and ice is making fast everywhere.

Determined to Live Until She Gets Justice From the Government.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Dec. 3.—The condition of Dr. Mary E. Walker, who was reported dying at her home at Bunker Hill, six miles west of Oswego, is much improved. She will soon begin work preparing papers to be presented at the second session of the Fifty-first congress, relative to her pension claim. She says she is determined to live until she obtains justice at the hands of the government.

STRIKING COAL MINERS.

The Struggle in Alabama Will be a Long and Bitter One.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 2.—The striking coal miners were joined yesterday by nearly all the men who were at work Monday. The indications are that the struggle will be a long and bitter one. Nearly half the furnaces in the district will go out of blast this week and others will follow as soon as their stock of coke is exhausted. The mine operators remain firm in their resistance of the demands of the men.

Has Turned Up Yet in the Indian Trouble.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Dec. 3.—The Rosebud Indians are reported to have settled yesterday in camp at Grass Basin, the Bad Lands. Reports that they will come are discredited by the authorities here. If they do not come in it will simply be a question of allowing them to keep on stealing cattle all winter or sending the soldiers to round them up.

DEATH IN AN INSTANT!

Comes to Hon. I. N. Jordan, a Prominent Cincinnati Lawyer.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 3.—Hon. Isaac N. Jordan, a prominent lawyer of this city and ex-member of congress was instantly killed at 10 o'clock this morning by falling through an elevator shaft at Lincoln's court, which had been carelessly left open.

Held for Examination.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Perrin H. Sumner, the real estate broker on Broadway, arrested on the charge of forgery in connection with an alleged James N. Edgar, who was supposed to be the man who committed suicide at the Getty house, Yonkers, last October, was arraigned in the tombs police court this morning. He was held in $1,500 bail for examination Friday afternoon.

Steamship Safe.

GLASGOW, Dec. 3—The overdue steamship Dthipia, of the Anchor line, about whose safety there has been some fears, is reported this morning to be safe. An incoming steamer which arrived to-day, reports having spoken to her and that her shaft was broken.

BOLD ROBBERIES.

At the Muzzle of a Revolver a Cashier is Made to Give Up $3,000.—Other Bandit Deeds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—John N. Arler, cashier of the Allerton packing company, was held up yesterday afternoon in his office in the packing house by two unknow men of granger-like appearance and robbed of $3,200 in cash. It was pay-day at Allerton's and few moments after $3,000 had been brought from the bank to the cashier, the strangers entered the office. In an instant the cashier was looking down the muzzle of a revolver. He was commanded to empty the money into a canvas bag which was held out alongside the revolver. Eighteen hundred men were working in the packing house close by at the time of the robbery. After the robbers had secured the money they locked out of the office and thrust a jimmy through the latch of the only door to the office, effectually barring the egress of the cashier. A buggy in waiting at the curb dashed off with the thieves, and all trace of them was lost before the police could be reached.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 3.—Early yesterday morning five unknown robbers entered the house of Mrs. Carey, a wealthy widow, residing at Sewell, took the woman from bed, bound and gagged her and secured about $1,000 in money which was in the house. Two of the robbers were subsequently captured, but soon after escaped, and in the exchanges of shots which followed, a man named Mason was shot dead.

ATHENS, Ga., Dec. 3.—Nathan Crockett, a negro, was killed yesterday in the camps of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern railroad in this city by an overseer named Glass. Impudence on the negro's part was the cause. Glass escaped.

INGENIOUS SWINDLER.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 3.—County Auditor Cann has unearthed a remarkable fraud in the county clerk's office in the issue of bogus jury certificates, the guilty party being J. P. Davis, a deputy clerk, who has been pocketing money by this ingenious style of theft for the last four or five years, his total stealings amounting to several thousand dollars. When Clerk O'Connor discovered the robbery he was so enraged that he attacked Davis with his fists and so disabled him that he is in Liberty hospital, though under arrest.

WORTH MILLIONS.

A Long Needed Rain Comes to the California Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The signal service has reports from the northern coast that a cyclone from the Japanese gulf stream has struck the Washington coast and developed in the worst gale known for years. The barometer dropped over half an inch in twelve hours and the wind is blowing sixty miles per hour. There is a strong possibility of the storm moving southwest to California. The long drought in this state was broken last night by rains reported from all parts of the Sacramento valley. This rain is worth millions to the state.

ST. PIERRE MIQUELON, Dec. 3.—There has been three days of terrible storm, tempest and hurricane. On Saturday four vessels parted their chains and came ashore and will prove total wrecks. The crews were saved. On Saturday the storms abated. There was no damage to shipping. On Monday night, however, a hurricane set in, and inflicted great damage. About ten schooners are high and dry around the harbor, with the winter fleet, moored for winter here, badly damaged. The steamer St. Pierre was to have sailed yesterday, but will remain in port until the weather becomes settled.

ON THEIR OWN HOOK.

The Knights Will Build and Run a Glass Factory of their Own.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 3.—The American Window Glass Workers association otherwise known as Assembly 300, K. of L., now propose to build a glass factory of its own. The factory will be run as a co-operative concern, but the profits will go into the treasury of the organization. The object in establishing the factory is to ascertain exactly how much profit there is in the business so that the men may act intelligently in formulating their wages scale.

Asking for Mercy.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—A meeting was held last evening at Cooper union to protest against the execution of Sophie Gunsburg, the young Russian girl who is condemned to death in Russia on suspicion of being a nihilist. Resolutions were adopted entreating the Russian government to modify the sentence. A copy will be sent to the Russian minister to Washington, and another copy will be sent to Secretary Blaine, with the idea that he will intercede on behalf of the girl.

Election News.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 3.—In the municipal election here yesterday Henry S. Tyler, the regular democratic nominee, defeated Booker Reed, independent, by 2,000.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Dec. 3.—In the municipal election yesterday the democrats elected all their nominees except two aldermen and one school trustee. Col. R. V. Booth was elected mayor, the first democrat elected to that office in years.

FALLING WALLS

At a Fire Bury Two Men in the Debris and One is Killed.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 3.—At 2 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the fine cut department of the immense tobacco manufacturing establishment of Daniel Scotton & Co. A heavy fall of snow prevented prompt attendance of the fire department and when sufficient force was on the ground the fire had attained great headway. The fine-cut department was a building 200 by 500 feet and in three quarters of an hour it was wholly in flames. The firemen were fighting the fire hard under the Forte-stall when the cornice toppled and the wall fell. Before all the firemen could get away Fireman Robinson, of engine company No. 8, and Lieut. Patrick Coughlin, of the same company were buried in the debris. Robinson was dug out dead. Coughlin was taken out alive with his head crushed, and he died at the hospital in an hour. He had been on the department roll of honor for repeated acts of bravery. Firemen Peter Cullen and Luiet Demay were also caught by the wall and badly hurt, but they will not die. The fire was still smouldering at 10 o'clock this morning. The big building had been destroyed with a loss of $100,000, while $20,000 more in stock and machinery were lost. The losses are pretty fully covered by insurance. The fire throws 400 hands out of employment, for the time, but the place will be immediately rebuilt.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Dec. 3.—A large boiler exploded yesterday at Berwick with terrible results. Frank Grover, Isaac Grover and two others, whose names could not be learned, were instantly killed. What caused the explosion is a mystery. The loss of property will reach several thousand dollars.

WOMAN'S LUCK.

A Feminine Forger Escapes the Law's Clutches.

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 3.—Mrs. Julius Cullin Lippincot, at one time proprietress of Haddon hall, Atlantic City, characterized by Prosecutor Jenkins as the most skillful pen-woman in the state, was acquitted last night of the charge of forgery.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Information was received from Trenton, N. J., yesterday that the court of pardons had granted a pardon to Nelson H. Coykendall, who was convicted of conspiring with his son-in-law, John H. Van Loan, to defraud the Second National bank of Jersey City. Van Loan fled to Canada and is still there. Coykendall received a nine months' sentence in the pen. He has served six months of the term. Van Loan and Coykendall are connected with some of the wealthiest families in Jersey City.

ATTACKED AN EDITOR.

An Enraged Father Cases a Newspaper Man.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 3.—Editor Sidney Corbett, of the Critic, a society journal, was the victim of a caning yesterday. Mr. Corbett recently married a daughter of Millionaire Mabley's, but has a profound contempt for society. He is reported to have written in a slight manner of Miss Lillian Thompson, daughter of ex-Mayor Thompson, after Miss Thompson's return from Europe, when it was reported in New York and Detroit papers that she was to marry Count Cleinist, of Berlin. This the family denied very emphatically. Yesterday Mr. Thompson called on Mr. Corbett and a row ensued, in which the mayor struck Corbett across the face with a cane, following it up with repeated blows, until bystanders interferred and separated the combatants.

On the Railroads--The Clergymen's Privilege Will Be Curtailed.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Every railroad in the west was represented at a meeting in the city yesterday, called to consider the free transportation question. It was decided to restrict the issue of all passes during the coming year to the closest limit. Clergymen's half fare permits will only be good in the state in which the holder resides. Heretofore passes have been issued liberally in order to influence both freight and passenger traffic, but all agreed to abandon such methods.

CONGRESS.

The Copyright Bill Passes the House To-day.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—In the house to-day, after the reading of the journal, the copyright bill was taken up and debated at length. Finally the bill was passed—ayes, 139; nays, 95.

KNIGHTS OF THE RAZOR.

The Annual Convention of the International Union of the Journeymen Barbers in This City.

The third annual convention of the International union of the Journeymen Barbers, practically opened in this city to-day. The meetings are being held at the rooms of the "Wayne Socials," at 195 Calhoun street. The meeting was convened yesterday, but owing to a delay in the arrival of some of the delegates there was an adjournment without having accomplished any business. This morning at 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order and William Hain, of Toledo, president of the organization, was chosen to preside, and A. Meyers, of Grand Rapids, as secretary. There will be three sessions a day, with closed doors, consequently the proceedings cannot be obtained for publicity. The important business of the convention will be held to-morrow and a final adjournment will be made to-morrow evening.

President Hain was seen by a SENTINEL reporter at the Aldine. "Our attendance is such as to ensure a good meeting," said he, "and we expect to accomplish a good deal. Our organization is still young, but the membership of our subordinate unions will aggregate nearly 8,000. The object of the organization is plainly that of mutual protection. Many of the unions are not represented, but it does not require a great number of them to fulfill the purpose of our meeting."

President Hains further stated that the organization was a member of the Federation of Labor, and one of its objects was to procure shorter hours. It does not favor the percentage system, as it gives inequality in employment. The election of officers and the selection of a place for the next annual meeting will be decided to-morrow. The latter choice seems to be strongly centered to Denver, Col., and the next convention will probably go there. The Aldine hotel is headquarters for the delegates, and the register shows the following gentlemen present to attend the sessions: William Haine, Toledo, president; H. Mote, Muncie; A. M. Gazzile, Toledo; L. H. Jones, Findlay, O.; C. Ramedden, Denver, Col.; Chas. E. Koontz, Memphis, Tenn.; H. Meyers, St. Paul, Minn.; L. P. Hollister, Lansing, Mich.; H. J. Mote, Muncie; Louis Schneider, Columbus, O.; Floyd Bostwick, Jackson, Mich.; Chas. F. Knecht, Topeka, Kas.

BLISS IN OLD AGE.

John B. Roy and Justin Ternet Join Hands and Hearts.

A quaint old couple appeared before County Clerk D. W. Souder this afternoon with the startling declaration that they had come to Fort Wayne from Jefferson township for the purpose of procuring a marriage license. The parties were John B. Roy, a prominent farmer of the above mentioned township, and Mrs. Justin Ternet, and old resident in the same neighborhood. He was a widower and she a widow. Both of them are well known, and in good financial circumstances.

They decided in a sensible way to go into a partnership and put sunshine into each others lives with their declining years. Mr. Roy is a Canadian Frenchman, while his bride to be is a French woman. He is nearly seventy and she past sixty years old. The marriage will take place in the little Catholic church at Besancon, after which the neighborhood will celebrate the occasion with grand festivities. THE SENTINEL extends congratulations.

A SURPRISED SWISS.

A Young Wagonmaker Receives Money From His Native Country.

Recently Albert Krieg, a young man, arrived in Fort Wayne from his native place, Aarburg, Switzerland. He found work at his trade, that of wagonmaking, in the works of the Fleming Manufacturing company, at which place he has been steadily employed since. Young Mr. Krieg was surprised yesterday to receive information that he had fallen heir to the sum of $500 from the estate of a relative. A very light hearted lad was he when he called at the postoffice to-day and received the amount. He is an industrious young man, just such a one as can appreciate the value of the bequest, which is to him a whole fortune. Mr. Krieg boards at 43½ East Columbia street.

REPRESENTS $100,000.

The Talbot Paving Company's Contracts So Far Completed.

Contractor Talbot, of the Talbot Paving company, Detroit, said to-day that the paving of East DeWald street, from Hanna to Calhoun streets, would be finished by noon to-morrow.

"This," said he, "will close up our work in Fort Wayne this year. The only remaining unfinished portion of our contracts is that part of DeWald street from Calhoun street to Fairfield avenue. We will store our blocks and finish these four squares next spring."

"Have you figured up what the estimate of these pavements represent in money?" asked a reporter.

"Our contracts will figure up $100,000, not $1,000 difference either way, this amount including the completion of DeWald street."

The contracts let outside of the Talbot company will amount to considerable. The cost of street pavements in Fort Wayne this year foots up big figures.

GIVEN TO THE POOR.

Manager Geary Makes a Generous Gift to the Relief Union.

Mrs. Ellen R. Barsley, the secretary of the Fort Wayne Relief Union, has written Manager James Geary a letter accepting his offer of $1,000 worth of admission tickets to the World's Museum, which he will present to the society. The exact date of the entertainment has not yet been decided upon, but it will be some night during the week commencing December 15, and the entire receipts for that evening from the sale of these tickets will go to the Relief union. The tickets will be sold at 10 cents each, and Geary's donation will thus admit 10,000 people to the museum. Manager Geary will provide a good entertainment on that evening, and will pay all the expenses except the printing of tickets, bills, etc., which the various newspaper offices—the News, Journal, Gazette, Archer Bros., and THE SENTINEL—will do gratuitously for the ladies. This generous act on Manager Geary's part is one to be commended, and as the entertainment that evening is for the benefit of the poor, he should have a crowded house.

DOWN AN EMBANKMENT!

A Frightful Runaway Accident in Which Farmer Hoevel is Badly Injured.

Information was brought to the city to-day of a frightful runaway, which came near being the cause of a violent death to Henry Hoevel, a prominent farmer of Adams township. Mr. Hoevel was driving home on the Trier road when the horses, frightened at some unusual object at the roadside, ran away. For fully five minutes the farmer tried in vain to get control of the animals. They galloped onward ungoverned, to the great peril of Mr. Hoovel, who was prepared to leap. Before he could do so, however, the horses shied to one side, going down an embankment and rolling over and over, with the wagon and contents to the bottom. Mr. Hoevel was carried with the outfit and suffered fearful injuries to his chest and side. One arm was also fractured. The injured man was picked up by a couple of farmers and conveyed to his home, where he is at present in a dangerous condition.

Enough of the beautiful fell last night to remind us that winter was really here.

Fort Wayne will not have detectives at present. She may, however, have a metropolitan police force.

Parnell dies hard. Let him retire from the leadership of the Irish party and come to America and lecture.

The Chicago Times calls the newly elected county officers of Cook county, "Our new hired men." Well, why isn't that all right?

The Crawford county Democrat, the plant of which was destroyed in the recent fire at Leavenworth, has reappeared, enlarged and improved.

Dr. M. C. Benhan has sold the Richmond Democrat to B. F. Wiseler and J. L. Daniels, of that city, and Mr. Mockel, of Cambridge City, possession to be given January 1.

Gambling is carried on in this city almost under the noses of our police. It would be a good idea to make raids on these dens and keep "raiding" them until they find their business unprofitable.

Henry Fischer, the county surveyor, entered upon the duties of his second term yesterday. Mr. Fischer has made an able and competent official and will continue to give the same satisfaction in the future as he has done in the past.

Christmas is seen in the show windows and the advertisements of our merchants. The great festival is now only three weeks away and thousands of persons are looking about for the best places to make their Christmas purchases.

The two departments of the Young Men's Christian association of this city, the railroad and the city branches, offer inviting retreats for our young men during the winter evenings. They should be well patronized. The secretaries of both institutions will give visitors a cordial welcome.

Master Irving Jay Stringer, the boy orator, who spoke at the Wayne street church in this city a few weeks ago, is the attraction at Huntington tomorrow night. The little fellow is only six years old, but "rolls big words out of his baby lips as easy as Demosthenes chowed pebbles."

The Indianapolis Journal says: "Secretary of State-elect Claude Matthews was in the city yesterday, and remarked that Fort Wayne and Terre Haute are desirous of having the metropolitan police law extended so as to include them. Those cities will petition the legislature to that effect at the coming session."

During November 419 pensioners, who were paid at the Indianapolis agency, died. This is a larger number of deaths for any one month than has been reported since the agency was established. To-morrow Agent Bailey will begin the payment of pensions for the December quarter. For that purpose he has $2,500,000 to his credit.

Gen. Reub Williams, in the Warsaw Times, has this to say: "People who take babies to public entertainments will probably sometime learn that a squalling kid is a disgusting nuisance to the people who have paid their money to hear and see the exercises and that its parents got no enjoyment whatever from the entertainment. If your baby cries, take it home and receive the everlasting thanks of a suffering public."

The Hendricks club, of Indianapolis, is arranging for the most elaborate reception and banquet ever given in Indiana in celebration of the re-election of Daniel W. Voorhees to the United States senate by the legislature. The election will occur about the middle of January, and the banquet will be given on the evening of the same day. Ex-President Grover Cleveland, Governor Hill, of New York; General John M. Palmer, of Illinois, and many other leaders of the democratic party will be invited and are fully expected to be present. Covers for probably a thousand guests will be laid.

The third annual meeting of the Steuben County Poultry association will be held at Waterloo, Ind., January 13 to 17, 1891. Dr. C. A. Robinson, of Morristown, Ind., formerly of this city, has been secured to examine the exhibits and award premiums. The doctor is very capable and popular with all poultry raisers.

Mr. Parnell, the Irish leader, was beaten last evening in a test vote taken in the meeting of the Irish members of the house of commons, who were considering the advisability of removing him from the leadership. The vote was on Mr. Nolan's amendment to postpone the question to a future meeting to be held at Dublin and it was defeated by a vote of 44 to 29.

The electric motor car ought to be in operation on all the street railroads in this city and we are glad to see that it will soon be given a test here. Yesterday an electric street car, consigned to the Fort Wayne Electric company, arrived and was unloaded at the works. The car is not unlike our present street cars in appearance. The car is to be propelled by a storage battery, which is concealed under the seat. The car will be tested in a few days and will probably be put on the Centlivre street car line.

The public will not be surprised at the news that the young emperor of Germany has fallen out with his mother. He no longer permits her to take any prominent part in court functions, and although his wife, the empress, expects soon to retire for a season, the emperor shows a disposition to be his own "leading lady" rather than permit his mother to appear in that capacity. The next manifestation will be awaited with interest. When a young man sends his mother to the rear he is not getting ahead very fast himself.

Mayor Harding, who commenced his official career with a vigorous enforcement of the Sunday law against saloons, has apparently receded from the course which he then mapped out, and many of the places where intoxicating liquors are sold dispense their stuff to customers on the Sabbath day. After awhile they will become bolder and Fort Wayne will again be a wide-open Sunday saloon town. The closing of the saloons on Sunday is a good thing and the mayor should resume the vigorous enforcement of the law in this respect.

Among the estimates submitted by the secretary of the treasury to congress are the following for Indiana: For passenger elevator for the Terre Haute building, $5,000; for the support of sixty Indian pupils at White's manual labor institute at Wabash, including transportation, $10,020; for the salaries and expenses of collectors and deputy collectors of internal revenue of the Sixth Indiana district, $55,000; for the Seventh Indiana district, $18,500; for the support and maintenance of 1,000 soldiers at the Marion home, $150,000; for out-door relief and incidental expenses at the same home, $35,000.

Allen G. Thurman is to be still further honored upon finishing his seventy-seventh year. A testimonial dinner will be given him at the Columbus club. The precise date has not been fixed, but it will probably take place next week. It will be on the subscription plan, seventy-seven persons participating, seven of whom are to be named by the "Old Roman" himself. The tables, seven in number, are to be arranged so as to form the figures "77." It will be a non-political testimonial from personal friends and neighbors in Columbus, Ohio, projected as a mark of respect to Judge and Mrs. Thurman. The latter has been requested to and will send a letter to be read on the occasion.

One of the first measures on the subject of the tariff to be introduced in the present congress was that of Representative Wike, of Illinois. The preamble recites that it is manifest the people of this country have at the recent election most emphatically repudiated the policy and principles of taxation and protection embraced in the McKinley law, and have by the overwhelming majority at such election unmistakably demanded lower taxes and cheaper necessaries of life. The resolution therefore instructs the committee on ways and means to report bills to repeal any and all increases in the rates of tariff duties occasioned by that enactment, and to place upon the free list wool, lumber, salt, coal, ores of all kinds, dye stuffs, tin plates, agricultural and manufacturing machinery, binding twine and the materials out of which it is manufactured, bagging, cotton ties and such other articles of raw material as the committee may deem of like importance to manufacturers or the people; such bills to provide carefully for carrying the reductions occasioned by putting such articles upon the free list into and through the various manufactures into which such materials may enter, to the end that the ultimate consumers, and not the manufacturers alone, may get the benefit of such reductions. The resolutions further instruct the committee to report a bill to provide for raising all additional revenue that may be necessary for the requirements of the treasury by a graduated tax upon the incomes of all persons, corporations, trusts and associations in excess of $5,000.

He held the undivided attention of his audience for more than an hour, pleading that 'that boy' shall not be snubbed because he is poor, or of humble parentage, or physically defective, or dull, or mischievous. The whole discourse was practical and intensely interesting, drawing, as he did, lessons from the lives of many prominent men. The doctor is a very pleasant speaker, and we judge that as a pulpit orator he is impressive and logical, as he is entertaining and instructive as a lecturer. In private life he is genial and companiable, and those who once meet him are glad to meet him again."

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every trace of impurity from the blood and builds up the weakened system.

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had a running scrofula sore. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed and by a continued use of it her recovery was complete. And she is now being seven years old, strong and healthy. R. C. Jukes, Alna, Lincoln County, Me.

COLD ✻ ENOUGH?

Well we should remark; and Mr. Greely informs us that the thermometer will drop 20 degrees by the morning. It won't pay you to go around with light weight overcoats and summer underwear and shake as though you had the fever and ague. A doctor's services come high, and your medicine bill alone will cost you more than a complete outfit of warm, seasonable clothing.

Overcoats, Ulsters,

This is what we call underwear weather, and we assure you its just what we've been waiting for. We're overstocked in this line, and between now and Christmas we're going to dispose of all we have at some price, and if we can't do that we'll give it away.

Shop all over the town on underwear and then come to us and see if we don't name you prices that will knock them all out; and while you are here, take a look at our Gloves, Mittens, Hosiery, etc,

As a play writer Mr. Gunter's name has long held an oviable place on the American stage, and doubtless in writing his now very famous novel of the same name as the play given, Mr. Gunter had a clear and main idea of theatric representation guiding him in the story's preparation. Certainly few equally dramatic novels have come forth with an American imprint. Mr. Gunter's faith in his novel was well repaid by an enormous popularity, and a like issue attended last year's stage presentation of the story. Our readers will have the play and its presentation before them for their competent judgment thereon, and both Mr. Sangor and the theater's managers feel quite assured of the verdict that will follow its seeing.

A SUCCESSFUL YOUNG MAN.

Mr. T. L. This is the only true way to build up a trade, and Mr. Lintz is enabled to do this as he imports most of his fine Glassware and decorated China direct from Europe and Japan. His store is packed from floor to ceiling with everything pertaining to a first-class crockery store, such as Lamps and Lamp goods of every description, Decorated Tea and Dinner Ware, Decorated Toilet Ware, fine Bohemian Glassware, handsome French and German decorated China, Table Cutlery and Silverware, also goods from the Japanese Empire. Mr. Lintz has one of the handsomest stores in the state and invites all to call and see his Holiday stock, which is more complete than ever before.

Stewart & Hahn,

For years we have given up keeping certain lines of Holiday Goods out side of what might be constituted actual Dry Goods. This year we were placed in such a favorable position to purchase fancy goods that we have been tempted to add a strictly Holiday Department to our store. The goods consist of Popular Novels, suitable for humanity of all ages, from the diminutive A B C book to Webster's Unabridged Dictionary of 1,534 pages. Also a beautiful line of Illustrated booklets from 5c up.

Plush and antique oak dressing cases, hat and glove boxes, manicure sets, jewel and odeon cases, plated knife, fork and spoon sets for children, pepper and salts, napkin rings, etc., etc.; steam engines that run by steam from a half to one hour, guns, banks, locomotives, wagons, blocks and dolls.

We cannot name all in detail, but we are sure anyone paying a visit to this department will agree with us that everything is new, seasonable, pretty and cheap. Although giving this department a good deal of attention, we have still given the usual care to the selections of Holiday Dry Goods.

We are now showing a full line of Holiday goods in every department of our store.

Ribbons, laces, lace ties, tidies, gloves, mittens, fascinators, handkerchiefs etc.

In our linen department we have table cloths and napkins, embroidered felt and flannel spreads, scarfs, etc., all new and at bottom prices. Our stamped linens are unsurpassed for variety, excellence and value.
